

les balladines

All-season walking act for inhabited giant puppets

Les Balladines appear and everything calms down. Slowly, gently, they walk with a light step. They take you instantly in a sweet timeless journey, at their own pace. They are impressive, mysterious, surprising, poetic, playful. They are silent. We just hear the light tinkling of the little bells of their dress. They stroll, tease and delight young and old people. All in tenderness and softness, they give colourful paper hearts to mark the privileged moment of the meeting.

Les Balladines are slowness in the fast pace of our lives; sweetness, calm, silence. And the public says : « Oh! they are so sweet, it's so nice ! »

Wandering dream, they embrace each scene of our daily life, covering them with softness, leaving the passers-by astounded. It's impossible to resist to the sweetness of these characters. In front of so much tenderness of Les Balladines, the audience literally fall for them.

Always improvising, the three actors who play Les Balladines, trained in masked theatre and clown art, makes the public interact with them.

This show stages the confrontation of imaginary, very graphic characters, with reality. A confrontation that causes a breakdown conducive to poetry, laughter and sharing.

Les Balladines feel comfortable everywhere : in the city, in the countryside, at the sea or in the mountains. Played according to the events, places, and meetings with the public, designed for the street, in the shape of a moving show, Les Balladines are three funny puppets of about 1,95 meter high. Its easy installation makes it highly flexible and adjustable, suitable for all kinds of outdoor events.

Roselyne Chauviré

Creator of puppets travelling ... in France and abroad

Throughout her work for different companies, Roselyne Chauviré has created a very personal imagery, a refined graphic signature.

Her favourite field : to invent characters.

Her very particular, poetic and playful universe weaves colourful, tender and mischievous puppets.

Roselyne Chauviré is happy to create for other companies as well as for herself.

You may have already met Les Poules or Les DéDé's at the corner of a street, in France or in Japan..., or in a showroom Lulu Nuit Blanche or Petit Bonhomme, which she created for La Cie Démons et Merveilles...

Les Balladines, created in 2011, is her first personal street wandering show.

In 2016, she reiterated the choice of the street wandering show with Billy Bulle, her new creation. Billy Bulle is a funny little guy. He seems to be coming from a cartoon or a comic...

« I try to do shows that do good to people. Sweet characters, happy, caring to others. I particularly like to create and play characters for the street stroll. The contact is direct. The improvisation game always challenges us to respond to situations, to listen to each other. I like the sincerity of these exchanges, the simplicity that brings intense moments of emotion. These characters touch all generations. »

Roselyne Chauviré is also an author, composer, performer under the name of Desrose and offers electro fantasy pop songs...
